

MARCH 2020

Thoughts selected from the book “Doors of the Cosmos” (PORTAS DO COSMOS), by Trigueirinho – Editora Pensamento

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1 Allow yourself to lie upon a bed of prayer, where dreams await you.	2 You are proceeding in the direction of the return to the House of the Father. Allow yourself to be elevated in this ascending path.	3 You will find OUR Light projected on those who will extend their hand to you when you need it.	4 The beauty of the Mother will be perceived in the eyes of those who purify themselves.	5 Nothing of what you know regarding your days upon the Earth will be helpful in the new cycle that is announcing itself.	6 You will be elevated from one plane to the next, from one life to another, because you will need to die so as to be reborn above and beyond.	7 Allow to be realized in thyself that which has been destined for this planet, this way you will be of service.
8 Each one of you who follows this path of return makes it so that hymns of praise may resound in the Heavens.	9 The phase of basic, preparatory service has ended.	10 Proceed without restrictions. Faith must be unconditional.	11 Being a part of a Greater Plan as you are, elevate yourself. Transform yourself.	12 Do not worry, because upon you is the gaze of the Father.	13 No longer consider yourselves as sons and daughters of the Earth. You are the sons and daughters of the Stars and they now claim you for your return.	14 You have been chosen and you have accepted. Open yourself to the Healing.
15 Pray always, as your connection with us is strengthened when you elevate yourself.	16 What is important is to prepare yourself internally and to allow yourself to be strengthened in spirit.	17 You are awaited in the Kingdom. Do not lose time and opportunities to grow in consciousness.	18 Give thy brothers and sisters the help needed but allow them to take responsibility for the assignments that are given to them.	19 Protect yourself from all that which you perceive is originated in the material levels.	20 Trust the strength of your inner Being, which will guide you through the most difficult and unforeseeable pathways.	21 Remain peaceful so that you may be disturbed as little as possible by disharmonious vibrations.
22 Thy questions will be answered as long as they are a real inner necessity and not just a mental curiosity.	23 Do you notice the joy that exists in the superior planes due to the awakening of your Being?	24 Simplify thy life and thy thoughts.	25 Feel thyself as brothers and sisters, as Offspring of the Cosmos in service and compassion.	26 Raise thy gaze to the heavens and remain firm in thy surrender and service.	27 Walk towards an inner silence that encompasses all of thy life.	28 There are tasks that are part of the individual and human life and other tasks that are of a planetary magnitude.
29 The Will of the Father expresses itself through purity and simplicity.	30 How many knots must you undo before you may find yourself united to us?	31 You must be ready to transform yourself. From your Interior will emerge the light that will guide your offer to the Evolutionary Plan.
